AMENDMENT

Dear Ms. Williams

In response to the office communication of mail date November 14th, 2007,
FINAL REJECTION.

I have tried to correct the things that needed correction and eliminated the text that was clearly introducing new matter, I had introduced this under the new headings which were missing from the original disclosure thinking that because these headings were completely missing from the original disclosure that the headings themselves called for a certain amount of new text but of course I now realise that this is not allowable.

I have now supplied the headings but merely used text completely compatible with the original text under these headings to make sure that no new matter is introduced.

I do apologise for the earlier mistake, I should also apologise for the grammatical errors present in my previous correspondence.

There is I believe some discrepancy in paragraph numbers which leads me to believe that we may be looking at different presentations of my earlier disclosure, for this reason I would like to apply for an extension of time just in Case the following pages are non compliant or that it is confirmed that I am correcting my disclosure from one that is different to the one you have.

I shall file a petition for an extension of time.

In your response under the heading: DETAILED ACTION, Specification, You have written: "The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: in the amended specification page 10, the instruction for placement of the last paragraph should read-Please replace paragraph [0015] with the following amended paragraph--"

The above paragraph leads me to believe that perhaps we are looking at different presentations of my earlier disclosure with different paragraph numbers because from my copy, the paragraph I was attempting to replace was [0017].

Are we looking at different paragraphs or is your copy numbered differently to mine? I have enclosed a copy of the disclosure I was looking at and highlighted the paragraph in question.

I have presumed that our copies contain different paragraph numbers and gone ahead and corrected as per your advice but applicant also requests that a number of new paragraphs are added, they are made of similar text as in the earlier disclosure and appear as a precaution to the fact that errors may occur due to there being paragraphs numbered differently, what I mean to say is that I am reluctant to direct towards further replacement of paragraphs as it may cause the wrong text to be replaced.

I have been careful not to introduce new matter.

Applicant requests that the earlier matter enclosed in the last amendment that was deemed to be new matter and was objected to in office action November 14, 2007 is removed and replaced by the contents of this document.

Amendments to the Title. The title has been changed from "Greetings Cards" to "A Greetings Card" this is reflected on page 3 of this document;

Amendments to the Specification are reflected on the pages; 4-13 of this document.

Amendments to the Claims are reflected in the listing of claims, which is on pages 14, 15 of this document.

Remarks/Arguments. Are on pages 18-22 of this document.
